

Identification Course 5	Course : International Law Course Coordinator : Phil EYRE Professor(s) : Matthew U'Ren-Gérente Semester 1 21 hours
Objectives	Introduction to the complex, multilayered area of international law. The example of Europe shows how both national and international or European law creates an environment where firms have to navigate within the two systems. Principles of international law with reference to commercial contracts. Case examples.
Prerequisites	No specific course requirements .
Syllabus :	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SESSION 1 : Introduction to law • SESSION 2 : Non-contractual obligations • SESSION 3 : Contractual obligations • SESSION 4 : Corporate Law • SESSION 5 : Some key areas of business law • SESSION 6 : International Contracts
Preparatory Work	Read the documents and cases indicated before each session
Validation	Two-hour Exam
Bibliography & Webography	Instructor's Manual and documents